

THE RUTH INSTITUTE

Community Outreach Specialist—Lake Charles, Louisiana

Developing relationships with organizations and individuals within the social conservative movement, in the Lake Charles area, and beyond

Key Job Responsibilities:

- Follow up with people who have shown interest in Ruth Institute activities, including events, prayer groups and study groups.
- Recruit volunteers for assisting with Ruth Institute events.
- Reaching out to individuals and groups to attend, sponsor and promote Ruth Institute programs and events.
- Coordinate Exhibitors at Ruth Institute events.
- Collaborate with other Ruth Institute team members on events and training.
- Periodic travel, including international travel.

Skill Set:

- Passion for the Ruth Institute mission of defending the family, and equipping advocates for the family at home and in the public square.
- Comfortable talking with people of all ages, in person, or on the phone.
- Excellent self-starter and follow-through skills.
- Well-connected within the Lake Charles community, particularly the faith community, OR
- Well-connected within the broader social conservative movement.
- Willing to work unusual hours, as the job may require.

Qualifications:

- Familiar with and committed to the Ruth Institute's mission.
 - Read The Sexual State
 - Read Dr. Jennifer Roback Morse's articles in The National Catholic Register
- Familiar and comfortable with religious culture, particularly Catholic culture.
- Willing to live in Lake Charles, Louisiana.

Compensation:

$30,000 to $35,000, depending on qualifications and experience.

To apply:

Send resume and references to info@ruthinstitute.org, subject line: job application.